

Master of Automotive Engineering

Tuition fees for Non-EU students

Tuition fee for the total studies:	12 000 Euro
The payment of tuition fee for the first year of studies:	7000 Euro
The payment of tuition fee for the second year of studies:	5000 Euro

Tuition fees for EU students

The payment of tuition fee for the first year of studies:	2000 Euro
The payment of tuition fee for the second year of studies:	2000 Euro

Can slightly defer from one partner school to another one.

No tuition fees asked by TU Chemnitz (relevant for EU and Non-EU students).

Cost estimation during the first year of studies in Czech Republic

The prices are in Czech Crowns (CZK). 1 Euro approximately equals 26 CZK.

Study materials

The printouts of lectures are freely distributed. The study books are available in the library. Some of the books are recommended to buy. The price is approximately: 7000 CZK.

Living costs

The dormitory costs approx. from 120 till 320 Czech Crowns (CZK) per night (depending on student demands and available rooms).

The warm meal in university student canteen costs approx. 60 CZK.

The card for Prague transport costs approx. 6100 CZK for the whole stay in Prague.

Health insurance

Best solution is probably to pay the health insurance directly in Czech Republic. The price is approx. 5000 CZK (basic insurance covering injuries only) and 12 000 CZK (insurance covering also the standard doctor visits) per year for students between 18 till 26 years.

Every visit by emergency costs 90 CZK (for any type of insurance), each day in hospital costs 90 CZK. Medicine is only partly covered by insurance (depends on medicine).

Prices of food products

Bread	30 CZK
Butter	50 CZK
1 Egg	5 CZK
100 g Cheese	25 CZK
1 kg Potato	15 CZK
1 kg Tomato	30 to 70 CZK (depending on the season)

Cost estimation during the second year of studies on ENSTA Bretagne in France

Study materials

The printouts of lectures are freely distributed. The study books are available in the library. No books to buy.

Living costs

The dormitory costs approx. 270€ per month with the breakfast but every student can have a help of approx. 90€ per month from the French government

The warm meal in university student canteen costs approx. 2.7€.

The card for Brest transport costs approx. 30€ per month

Health insurance

The health insurance is 195€ per year

Every visit by the doctor costs 22€ but the health insurance refund 21€

Cost estimation during the second year of studies on HAN in the Netherlands

Study materials

The printouts of lectures are freely distributed. The price estimation for books which are necessary to buy: 500€

Living costs

The dormitory costs approx. 3400€ for the whole year. The estimation of living costs in the Netherlands for the whole year is 3600€.

Health insurance

The health insurance is 500€ per year

Cost estimation for one year of studies at TU Chemnitz in Germany

No tuition fee is paid on TU Chemnitz.

Study materials

The printouts of lectures are freely distributed. Most of the necessary books can be found in the university library.

Living costs

The prices of the dormitory vary depending on the building from 190 € to 270 € per month. A warm meal in the university canteen costs – depending on the chosen meal – 1.90 € for the cheapest up to 2.80 € for the most expensive meal.

Students pay 270 € per semester for free transport within Chemnitz and several trains within Saxony as well as for the Studentenwerk and the multi-functional student ID card (functions include identification, borrowing books in the library, printing, and paying for meals in the canteen).

Health insurance

The health insurance costs about 100 € per month.

Prices of food products

Bread	2 €
Butter	1-2.50 €
1 Egg	0.09-0.20 €
1 kg apples	2 €
1 kg potatoes	1,3 €
1 l milk	0.9 €
1 bottle min. water (0.75 l)	0.80 €
1 cup of coffee (in a café)	2.50 €
1 beer (in a bar)	3,50 €
1 pizza in a restaurant	4 - 9 €

In Prague, March 2021

Gabriela Achtenová
MAE Coordinator